

May Peace, Joy & Beauty Surround You All Season

Over the last year, we've strived to bring you the very best newspaper possible and during this Christmas season, we express our thanks for your kind support and our hopes for a very Merry Christmas, abundant in love and good cheer.

We hope you enjoy the letters to Santa included in this edition, made possible by the many businesses, organizations, churches and industries delivering you a Christmas Message during this blessed season.

Take some time to read the enclosed "Letters to Santa," from local 1st 2nd & 3rd graders. They will fill your heart with joy and laughter. But remember, they are just learning to spell.

They were typed exactly as they came to us.

Let the Christmas Greetings from area merchants remind us of the caring community in which we live.

A Christmas to Believe In

Students at Visitation Inter-Parish School put on a very good performance with the 2018 Christmas program, "A Christmas to Believe In." One of the three narrators admitted that he was not sure he believed in the Christmas story. The nativity story performed by the costumed students as Mary and Joseph with the infant, the manger animals, angels and kings, and with their songs they helped him to find that he did believe. "Whether you believe it or not, it's still true. And, the really good thing is that since it is true, no one can ever take it away from you!"

On the farm or in the city...

With sincere best wishes from our flock to yours this Christmas. We hope to see you again in the new year.

THE MARIES R-1 Elementary School program, "All About Christmas" included a visit from Santa himself, much to the joy and excitement of the students who were dressed in their Christmas finery for the program. Fourth grader Lakin Lear (top right) wore an elaborate Christmas head piece. The fifth graders (bottom left) sang "Rockin' Around the Christmas Tree," and fourth graders Rose Massman, Izzabella Duncan and Taylor Martin (bottom right) sang "Have a Holly Jolly Christmas" with their classmates.

DANCE ACADEMY dancers Cristina Aguilar, Nakoma Canuto, Eden Hall, Cheyenne Hicks, Alexis Kirby, Ave Kloeppel, Ava Laughlin and Elizabeth Veasman, dance to 'Part of Your World' during Saturday's recital.

SANTA CLAUS arrived with pomp and circumstance at the courthouse on Saturday morning, riding on a fire truck. Children were standing on the front steps waving to him as he entered. Little Alden Kramer, age 2, could not keep his eyes off Santa and he was the first to wave at him when he came into the building. He is the son of Adam and Christina Kramer. The event was sponsored by the Vienna Lions Club.

Happiest Day On Earth

The Dance Academy dancers, under the direction of Roberta Kilmer, put on a fantastic program, the "Happiest Day On Earth" last Saturday with the annual Christmas recital. The VHS gym was full of parents, grandparents, family and friends who came out to watch the choreographed dancing. The dancing Minnie's, the little girls ages two and three, danced to "Jingle Bells" (top left). The seven through nine-year-old group (bottom left) danced to "It's a Small World," and the seven through nine-year-olds hip hopped to "Beauty and the Beast" (bottom middle). Beth Martin, age 12, (in pink) and Rose Massman, age 10, (in blue) had a fine performance (two photos at right) as Elsa and Anna from the movie "Frozen" to the song "Do You Want to Build a Snowman."
