Over the last year, we've strived to bring you the very best newspaper possible and during this Christmas season, we express our thanks for your kind support and our hopes for a very Merry Christmas, abundant in love and good cheer for your family.

We know you'll enjoy the letters to Santa included in this edition, made possible by the many businesses, organizations, churches and industries delivering you a Christmas Message during this blessed season.

Take some time to read the enclosed "Letters to Santa," from local 1st 2nd & 3rd graders. They will fill your heart with joy and laughter. But remember, they are just learning to spell.

They were typed exactly as they came to us.

Let the Christmas Greetings from area merchants remind us of the caring community in which we live.

Drive Thru Christmas at the Belle park

The Belle Community Betterment Association (BCBA) hosted a successful "Drive Thru Christmas" event Saturday at the Belle City Park. Over 75 cars drove through to meet Santa (Josh Seaver) and Mrs. Claus (Sadie Mosher) as they handed out goodie bags with fruit and candy. Before meeting Santa, children could drop their letters off with Santa's helper, Brenda Leigh Guffey, in his letter net. Over 60 letters were taken with Santa and Mrs. Claus back to the North Pole. Members of the BCBA handed out 183 goodie bags, with some families driving from as far as Freeburg to meet Santa. Legends Bank, the Maries County Bank, Mid America Bank, and Mace Supermarkets provided various donations for the goodie bags. Before leaving the park, children were charmed by the Grinch himself, along with Cindy Lou Who and other special guests, who handed out toys. Toys were provided by the Ya Ya's of Belle. "It was a great day," said member Sundi Jo Graham. We had no idea what to expect. We originally bagged up 150 goodie bags, but a couple volunteers had to run to the store to get more candy. We certainly didn't want any kids leaving disappointed."

Snow, a Farmall tractor, a cedar tree seen at a glance develops into a Christmas card

BY LAURA SCHIERMEIER
ADVOCATE STAFF WRITER
lschiermeier@wardpub.com

VIENNA — On a cold and snowy day before Christmas, Charlie Buntsma of the Kenner area of Maries County, was driving on Highway 28 when he saw a nice scene on a county road. It was a young man bundled up against the cold, who was driving a Farmall tractor with a Christmas tree tied to the seat of the tractor.

It was a quick glance but the image had lasting quality for him. He thought about it and knew that he liked it. He approached three artists about painting the image for him. A neighbor, Clifford Oesch, accepted the challenge.

"I asked him to do it and he said he would try," Buntsma said. The result is a really nice piece of art that Buntsma used as a Christmas card in 2020. It's a Farmall tractor with a cedar tree attached to it and the tractor driver is waving his hand to all those who look at it. It's a snow scene with an old house in the background and features trees dusted with snow. It's very beautiful.

Buntsma liked the painting as soon as he saw it, although the painter had his doubts about it. Buntsma took the finished painting to Staples and had about 40 Christmas post cards made from it. Oesch took Buntsma's concept and brought it to life within about 24 hours. Oesch, 72, began painting about eight years ago. He likes to do it on poor weather days when he has to stay inside. He likes to paint mainly landscapes and seascapes and gets his ideas and inspiration from looking at magazines, photos and websites.

He studies works of art and takes what he likes from them and makes his own painting. He might take a sky from one painting and put it with a landscape from another one. His medium is acrylic paint, which he sometimes combines in mixed media with pastels or pencils. He buys his supplies at Hobby Lobby in Rolla and his canvasses are 16x20 and smaller. The one he did for Buntsma is about the size as a standard piece of paper. He keeps some of the paintings in his home and gives away others to relatives and friends. Buntsma said Oesch would not take money for the painting he did for him.

Oesch said he didn't like how the man turned out on the painting. "I didn't like the face on it. I don't do people very well," he said. Buntsma said he liked everything about it, especially the good job he did with the landscape. When he asked about the house in the painting, Oesch said he made it up and possibly painted one like it before so he included it on the Buntsma painting. That house could be an old Maries County homestead as it fits the style of this area 100 years ago. There might be a dog under that porch.

Clifford Oesch and his wife, Karen, moved here from Arizona in 2016. His father had purchased land in Maries County but became ill and couldn't do anything with it. His father gave the land to one of Oesch's nephews, who was going to use it for hunting. It's three acres and it is pasture. It was not the best place to hunt and there are neighbors nearby who wouldn't appreciate it. Oesch came to this area looking to buy land. His nephew said his father had given him the land and he wanted to give it to Oesch and he did. They built a house in 2017 and they've lived here ever since. He likes the quiet and peacefulness of the area and enjoys seeing deer, wild turkey, rabbits and squirrels.

A GROUP of staff and students from Maries R-1 School recently treated some Maries Manor residents to Christmas caroling. The residents were brought to the windows and smiled at the singers. It was a bright but chilly day but that did not deter this group of well-wishers who combined their voices for the enjoyment of some Maries Manor residents.

It's Beginning to Look a Lot like Christmas!

When sounds of carols fill the air,
And signs of the season are everywhere
When hearts are light and cares are few
Then we know it's time to give our thanks to you!
